Sponsorship of the Flowers: Flowers can be sponsored each week for the church. It is listed in the bulletin along with the name(s) of those for whom a remembrance has been made. (Suggested donation $50.00)

Flower Fund: The flower fund is used specifically for assisting with flowers that beautify our church year round. A donation in any amount is accepted for the Flower Fund and, if desired, donations can be made for a specific intention. Donations will be published quarterly just the same as Memorial Fund donations. This fund supplements the weekly sponsorship of flowers and doesn’t replace Easter and Christmas Flower collections.

Memorial Fund: All Saints Parish Memorial Fund is used strictly for liturgical needs in the parish. This is a way of contributing to the parish and also to have a Mass said for those who wish to remember loved ones or special occasions.

According to Webster dictionary, the phrase "Tower of Ivory" also conveys a meaning of a secluded place. Truly Mary's womb was that secluded place for our Lord at His Incarnation, carrying the King of the Universe and her soul is that dazzling whiteness of Ivory. As towers were created and built to be shelters of pleasure and delight for kings, so too was Mary created for Jesus the King of Kings.

However, it wasn't just kings who needed places of refuge, all of us need one as well. We need that secluded place where we can seek shelter from the storms of life and the attacks of the wicked one. It is at these times that we can think of Mary as that beautiful, graceful, pure, and secluded Tower of Ivory, ever ready to receive us and soothe us back to peace and calm of soul.

The Song of Solomon continues by saying "How fair and pleasant you are, O loved one, delectable maiden!" (Songs 7:8).

Yes, she is the fair and loved one, always ready to come to our aid. She wants us to seek shelter under her Tower where she can lead us in purity ever so closer to her Son, and guide us safely to heaven.

Tower of Ivory....Pray for us!

We can't do it on our own strength

Life is too hard to get through without Jesus, but with Jesus it is a Joy to go through this life, and then spend eternity with Him in the next life. He told us that the burden would be easy and light if we trusted Him and allowed Him in the center of our lives. Ask Jesus to awaken and strengthen the baptismal graces in your soul and help you make Him the center of your life. This is a prayer Jesus wants us to ask for and He told us He would answer it if we asked Him. What are you waiting for?

Bible Study: Gospel of St. John Joins Us On Tuesday Evenings Rogers Hall From 6:30-8:00pm

Mike Denz, our Director of Faith Formation, is teaching his Gospel of St. John Bible Study to adults on Tuesdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm in Roger's Hall. Classes run through the end of Lent. Handouts will be provided. All are most welcome!

You don't have to come to all of them, each presentation stands on its own.

Catechism Quote of the Week:

The Lord, having loved those who were His own, loved them to the end. Knowing that the hour had come to leave this world and return to the Father, in the course of a meal he washed their feet and gave them the commandment of love. In order to leave them a pledge of this love, in order never to depart from his own and to make them sharers in his Passover, he instituted the Eucharist as the memorial of his death and Resurrection, and commanded his apostles to celebrate it until his return; "thereby he constituted the priests of the New Testament." (CCC 1337)

Today's Scripture Passage for Meditation from Chapter 27 of Sirach:

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear; so do one's faults when one speaks. As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace, so in tribulation is the test of the just. The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had; so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind. Praise no one before he speaks, for it is then that people are tested.

Saint Quote of the Week:

"The surest and quickest way to attain perfection, is to strive for purity of heart. Once the obstacles have been removed, God finds a clear path and does wonders, both in and through the soul."

~St. Albert the Great, doctor of the Church, Memorial on November 15th

Catholic Trivia: Which of the 12 Apostles was the youngest?

Answer from last week: The Church celebrates St. Steven, a deacon who's death is recorded in the Acts of the Apostles, as the first martyr. His Feast is on December 26th.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Welcome! It is a joy that you chose to join us for Mass this week-end.

Imagine God coming to you at this very moment saying, "Today I must stay at your house!" How do you react when you hear those words? God must stay at your house. There is no time to clean or organize things or make any preparations. There is no time to backtrack and catch up on things that may have slipped by during the week. God is coming and doesn't care how things look! God just wants to spend time with you. God's mercy is very wide. It is so wide that we sometimes have a difficulty accepting just how unconditional and free it really is. We may find ourselves thinking that there must be some folks who don't deserve it or aren't worthy. All are worthy. The book of Wisdom tells us, "But you have mercy on all and you overlook people's sins that they may repent." There is no way around it: God must offer mercy. We are lost and we desperately need it.

Day-by-Day Week Long Vocation Intentions

Please join us in daily prayer over the course of this coming week. Please recite the following prayer for the particular daily intention.

*Eternal Father, We lift up to you {intention}. Sanctify, heal, and guide him/her. May the Holy Spirit possess him/her and give him/her His Gifts and Fruits in abundance.
In Jesus' name we pray.*

Good News

Praise Jesus!

This week's bulletin article contains two items: a thank you letter from the parish in Erwin, Tennessee that received the sanctuary furnishings from IHM Church and Brian Mizzoni's recent reflection for the Miraculous Medal Series.

In Christ,
Fr. Jones

From Erwin to Erwin...

Dear Fr. Matthew and Parishioners,

Please excuse the very late "Thank-you" for all the sanctuary items that you sent to us. Since they arrived it has been busy here. We set them up immediately on Wednesday. Your items are fantastic. Last Sunday as I began Mass I asked if anyone noticed anything different. One of the high school Teens yelled out what he saw as new. Others noticed how everything matched. And the couple who redid our altar a few years ago commented on how they liked the new altar. One of the youths kept commenting on the baptismal font. That was really appreciated. Little "E-man" Emmanuel was our cross bearer on Sunday. The cross is twice his size. When he put it into its holder it went "thump" and everyone knew where the cross was. We now have someone carrying in the Book of Gospels and place it on the holder in front of the ambo.

Our older altar, baptismal font and tabernacle are going to the Glenmary Mission two hours away. They are in the midst of building a multi-purpose building and in need of new items. It is great to be able to do for another mission what you did for us. It is a win-win situation for us as well.

Again, thank you very much for your generosity towards us. I know it comes as an unfortunate situation to have to close your parish. I had to sell a church building when I arrived in Logan County, West Virginia 14 years ago. Though the church building had been closed for several years it was painful for the former parishioners to see their parish church close. But they became an active part of the parish they transitioned into. In fact they took on many of the leadership positions in that parish because the parishioners there were aging. But in your dying in your parish where you had a Catholic church for many decades, you have risen in a rural Mission in East Tennessee that eight years ago did not have a Catholic church in its county. Please see yourselves in view of the Gospel message of Jesus when the Apostles wanted to stay where they had been. "And in the morning, a great while before day, Jesus rose and went out to a lonely place, and there Jesus prayed. And Simon and those who were with him followed him, and they found him and said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." And Jesus said to them, "Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also; for that is why I came out." And Jesus went throughout all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues..." (Mark 1:35-39). Please see yourselves as going forth to preach the Good News to us here in Unicoi County. You preach it through your gift to us. At your pulpit the Word of God is spoken to us. At your altar Christ comes among us in the Eucharist. At your Baptismal Font the young and old are brought into the Body of Christ. You are being Missioners to us. THANK YOU VERY MUCH!!!

God bless you.
Your Fellow Missioner in Christ,
Fr. Tom Charters

Tower of Ivory: (WEEK 3)

*"Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim."
(Song of Songs 7:4).*

The above verse from the Song of Solomon is an expression of praise from a lover to his beloved maiden. He uses the term "Ivory Tower" when talking to her. Last week we discussed towers, specifically the Tower of David; this week we continue with that same theme. We are now looking at the next invocation in the Litany of the Blessed Virgin, namely "Tower of Ivory. In today's context, towers, (being symbols of strength and dignity), serve to reveal that the lover is not only captivated by the beauty of his maiden, but by her character, dignity and strength. So much so, that she is not only compared like a tower but a tower of Ivory.

Ivory is a rare and expensive material usually from the tusks of an elephant with a whitish color. Applied in a biblical and theological sense, white conveys purity. Even though there may have never been actual towers built out of pure ivory, the phrase "Tower of Ivory" calls to mind an image of a glowing, celestial structure with dazzling whiteness, resplendent in beauty and purity. It is an image of elegance which is truly a most appropriate image of the Immaculate One. Mary's spotless purity is reflected in that phrase, Tower of Ivory, and we find in her an exquisite, transcendent and maternal gentleness.
